

Programme Name	Master of Oral Surgery
Programme Description	Master of Oral Surgery programme aims to impart necessary knowledge, skills, attitudes and behaviours to dentally qualified graduates to become specialist practitioners in Oral Surgery in the hospital sector of small Pacific Island Countries.
Majors	N/A
Minimum Requirements	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Applicants for the Masters level will be Practicing Dentists in the Hospital Sector with the Bachelor of Dental Surgery or an equivalent basic dental degree registrable with the Fiji Dental Council and Successful completion of FNU Post Graduate Diploma in Oral Surgery Training Programme achieving an aggregate of 65% or higher in the final examination. 2. Applicants who may not meet the requirement could be enrolled under the discretion of the Dean on the basis of maturity, work experience, or prior learning subject to prerequisite requirement as mentioned in UASR (2013 Page 28. 6.8.2.)
Duration	2 years full time
Programme Type	Masters
College Name	College of Medicine, Nursing and Health Sciences
Campus	Hoodless House/
Credit Point	240

Programme Structure
Unit Code	Unit Title	Credit Points
	Year 1
DNT 815	General Medicine in Oral Surgery & Research Project	120
	Year 2
DNT 900	Comprehensive Oral Surgery	120
	Total Credit Points:	240

Unit Prerequisite
Unit Code	Unit Title	Prerequisite
DNT 815	General Medicine in Oral Surgery & Research	PGD in Oral Surgery programme
DNT 900	Comprehensive Oral Surgery	